Below is an expanded overview of the key services we offer:

1. General Overview on Probate and Administration of Deceased's Estate

At Mira, we provide expert advice on all aspects of probate and administration of estates, inheritance right and applicable laws in the matter. We provide adequate guidance to clients through the process of family meeting, court documents, petition for the grant of probate or letters of administration, core duties of executor or administrator, collection of deceased's estate, payment of his debt and distribution of properties to lawful heirs and or beneficiaries in accordance with the applicable law. We ensure that our clients understand the complexities of succession laws, inheritance rights, and their obligations, whether they are preparing for the future or handling the estate of a loved one.

2. Legal Advice

Our experienced legal professionals offer tailored advice on various aspects of the law, ensuring our clients are well-informed and confident in their decisions. Whether you are dealing with family law, property disputes, probate or administration issues, we provide clear, actionable advice that is relevant to your specific situation. This service is designed to give you peace of mind and clarity in navigating legal challenges.

3. Court Document Preparation and Filing

Navigating the legal system requires proper documentation, which can often be a complex and time-consuming process. Mira assists in preparing and filing court documents to ensure accuracy and compliance with legal requirements. We streamline this process to save you time and reduce costs and risk of delays in court proceedings.

4. Will Drawing

Creating a will is one of the most important steps in securing your legacy. Our experts will guide you through the process of drawing up a legally sound and valid will, tailored to your unique circumstances. We ensure that your wishes are clearly documented and that your heirs or beneficiaries are protected, offering peace of mind for the future.

5. One-on-One Consultancy and Advice

We provide personalized legal consultancy services, allowing you to discuss your concerns and questions in a confidential setting. This service is ideal for individuals seeking focused legal advice on specific issues, from inheritance disputes to family law. Our consultants are available for in-depth discussions to explore the best legal solutions for your situation.

6. Estate Planning While Alive

Effective estate planning ensures that your assets are protected and distributed according to your wishes. Our team works closely with you to develop a customized estate plan that reflects your goals, minimizes taxes, and avoids potential disputes among heirs. This proactive approach can prevent future legal challenges and ensure your loved ones are taken care of.

7. Estate Management Through a Trust

Managing an estate after a person's passing can be overwhelming for the surviving family members. We offer comprehensive estate management services, handling everything from setting an organisation to manage your estate and debt settlement. Our team ensures that the estate is administered in accordance with the law, reducing the burden on your loved ones during a difficult time.

8. Marriage vs Probate and Administration of Estates

Relationship Between Marriage, Probate, and Administration of Estates Marriage plays a significant role in the distribution of assets after death, particularly in cases of probate and estate administration. At Mira, we help clients understand how their marriage and marital property rights will impact their estate planning and probate processes. This service is essential for both spouses to ensure fair and legal management of assets. It is very important to note that, after the death of one spouse courts have no room to discuss and determine issues of matrimonial properties. Marriage, Decree of separation or divorce have a significant effect in the aspect of inheritance which every couple must understand beforehand.

Similarly, Joint Occupancy and Tenancy in Common

In estate planning, understanding property ownership structures is crucial. We advise on the legal implications of joint occupancy and tenancy in common, helping clients determine the best form of ownership for their properties. This ensures that their assets are protected and passed on according to their wishes, with clarity on how these structures affect inheritance and estate distribution
